The admission agreement and residency at Manor Hills Assisted Living Residence may be terminated in the following ways:

1. By mutual agreement of the resident and the operator.
2. Upon ten- (10) days notice from the resident to the operator of the residents intention to terminate the agreement and leave Manor Hills.

3. Upon thirty days (30) days written notice from the operator to the resident for the reasons listed below, and if the resident objects to the action, only after the operator initiates a court proceeding and the court rules in the favor of the operator. The grounds upon which involuntary termination may occur are:
 - a. The resident requires continual medical or nursing care which Manor Hills Inc. can not provide.
 - b. The residents behavior poses imminent risk of death or imminent risk of serious physical harm to himself or others.
 - c. The resident fails to make timely payment for all authorized charges, expenses and other assessments, if any, for services including use and occupancy of the premises, materials, equipment and food which the resident has agreed to pay pursuant to the resident's admission and service agreement. If failure to make timely payment resulted from an interruption in the receipt by the resident of any public benefits to which he/she is entitled, no voluntary termination can take place unless the operator, during the 30 days notice period assists the resident in obtaining such benefits. the resident and/or legal representative must cooperate with such efforts by the operator.
 - d. The resident repeatedly behaves in a manner that directly impairs the well being, care or safety of the resident or any other resident or which substantially interferes with the orderly operation of the facility.
 - e. The operator has had operating certificate limited, revoked, temporarily suspended or the operator has voluntarily surrendered the operating certificate of Manor Hills to the New York State Department of Social Services, or:
 - f. A receiver has been appointed pursuant to section 461 – f of the New York Social Services Law and is providing for the orderly transfer of all residents in the facility to other facilities or is making other provisions for the residents continued safety and care. If the operator decides to terminate the admission agreement for any of the reasons given above, the operator will have hand delivered to the resident a notice of termination on a form prescribed from the State Department of Social Services. Such notice will include the date of termination and discharge, which must be at least thirty (30) days after delivery of the notice, the reason for termination, a statement of the residents rights to object, and a list of the legal and advocacy resources approved by the State Department of Social Services. Copies will be sent to the resident's next of kin, legally responsible relatives and to the appropriate regional office of the state of Department of Social Services.

The resident may object to the operator about the termination and may be represented by the attorney or advocate. When the resident challenges the court termination, the operator, in order to terminate, must institute a special proceeding in court. The resident will not be charged against his/her will unless the court rules in favor of the operator.

VIII. TRANSFER

Notwithstanding the above, the operator may seek appropriate evaluation and assistance and may arrange for the transfer of a resident to an appropriate and safe location, prior to termination of an respite admission and without thirty (30) days notice or court review, for the following reasons:

1. When a resident develops a communicable disease, Medical or mental condition, or sustains an injury such that continual skilled or nursing services are required. When the basis for the transfer no longer exists and the Resident is deemed appropriate for placement in an adult home, he/she shall be readmitted when an opening becomes available.
2. In the event that a resident's behavior poses an imminent risk of death or serious physical injury to himself / herself or others.

3. When a receiver has been appointed under the provisions of New York State Social Services Law and is providing for the orderly transfer of all residents in the facility or is making other provisions for the residents continued safety and care.

After transfer, if return to the facility is not anticipated, the operator will initiate termination procedures as set forth in section VII of this agreement.

4. Upon official notice of discharge from the facility the resident or his / her representative will have twenty four (24) hours to remove personal furnishings and personal items from the residents room. If you are unable to comply, Manor Hills staff will pack up all residents personal belongings and place it in storage for up to thirty (30) days. If these items are not claimed after thirty (30) days, they will be donated.

A. BED RESERVATIONS

Manor Hills Inc. shall give residents the option of reserving their room in the event of a temporary absence from the facility. Reservations are at the same daily rate and shall be reserved until such time as the resident or representative requests that the reservation be cancelled, or notification from the physician or hospital that the resident is in need of a higher level of care. This does not supersede the requirements for termination is section VII of this agreement.

XI. REFUND OF RESIDENT MONIES AND PROPERTY:

Upon termination of this agreement, the operator shall provide the resident with a final written statement of the resident's payment and personal allowance accounts at Manor Hills Inc.. In addition, the operator shall return, within three (3) business days of the termination of the agreement, any money, property or anything of value held in safe keeping or owed to the resident. This shall include any money or property of the resident, which comes into possession of the operator after discharge. Manor Hills Inc. shall not be responsible for such valuables, or belongings left more than thirty- (30) days after termination of the admission agreement.

The operator shall provide the resident with a refund based upon the daily charge and the date of termination if either the operator or the resident has given notice to terminate this agreement as provided for in section VII above.

Upon termination of the agreement and when appropriate, the operator shall turn over the property of the individual to the legal representative or the surrogate's court of the county.

XII. WAIVER
